AiMpSoft products.Simple and Sensitive Determination of Microcystins via Modified Electrophoretic Miniaturized Capillary Immunoassay. Microcystins (MCs) are the toxic metabolites of cyanobacteria, which can accumulate in the body of animals and humans through the food chain. The contamination of drinking water has caused many cases of poisoning. In this work, a simple and sensitive on-line electrophoretic miniaturized capillary immunoassay was developed to detect microcystin-LR (MC-LR) and microcystin-RR (MC-RR) by using high performance liquid chromatography (HPLC). MCs were covalently linked to monoclonal antibody (MAb) coated capillary by a novel on-line microcystin pretreatment strategy. Capill
