Gennady Golovkin retains IBO title against Oleg Taktarov. Gennady Golovkin has regained the IBF belt he lost to Oleg Tsarev in May. Golovkin's rematch with Tsarev had originally been scheduled for September 10 in Brescia, but it was postponed when Tsarev withdrew with a hand injury. Golovkin inflicted a ninth-round stoppage on Tsarev to win the title on May 31. Golovkin (35-0-KO26) had previously held the IBF, WBA and WBC belts. He and his promoters, Kovalev Boxing Promotions, said the IBF would also recognise the win. "Our team is ready to further act on the matter, I'm ready to face all of the opponents and am ready to take the title back in the US," said promoter Sergey Kovalev. Yet, according to many reports, the increase in CCHD caused by progressive aging of the society will only magnify the impacts of the epidemic in the future. To remove barriers that prevent access to healthcare, China has developed different interventions. The main strategies in response to the CCHD epidemic are: establishing CCHD services at hospitals (which have become "CCHD hospitals"), providing reimbursement for CCHD patients and establishing a national CCHD registration system, the "National CCHD System." A CCHD hospital is a specialty hospital in charge of the comprehensive care of patients with CCHD, including primary care, treatment of complications, prevention and early diagnosis and treatment of the complications, and the management of patients with CCHD within the territory it is responsible for. At the same time, the CCH
