Alternative way is to run PDF Unlocker to remove the watermarks from the PDF file. her, but she felt far too old to go out with a boy. Miss Turquand had always looked far too young to be labelled a spinster. She was ten years younger than Ismay. But in her forty-third year she would have been far more than twice his age. Ismay was not the kind of man to look after an old woman, even one as lovely as Miss Turquand. No, Ismay was the kind of man who looked after young women and young men, or at least the kind who were inclined to listen to Ismay. Miss Turquand had heard of Ismay's good heart but she knew from experience that one could only trust a man once. She had betrayed George Goubet and she could not trust Ismay. Yet she could not prevent herself from asking him to have lunch with her on the ninth of February, and he had accepted her invitation, for none of his passengers had asked him to the table since his return from America. Ismay, who had expected her in his office, found her on the threshold of the passenger lobby, dressed in a waterproof raincoat, beneath which a white bl 04aeff104c
