World Cup semifinal update: Spain vs Netherlands Spain's players line up for the national anthem prior to their semifinal soccer match against the Netherlands at the 2014 World Cup soccer tournament in Brazil on Saturday. Associated Press Spain's players line up for the national anthem prior to their semifinal soccer match against the Netherlands at the 2014 World Cup soccer tournament in Brazil on Saturday. In all, they'll match against a Netherlands team that's been ranked as high as second in world soccer but has lost its past four games — including a pair of World Cup quarterfinal losses against Portugal and Germany that have raised questions about whether this year's tournament might be a one-sided affair. Neither team has ever won a World Cup semifinal. And the odds are that neither will. “When you lose a few matches, you forget that you've been great,” Netherlands goalkeeper Jasper Cillessen said. “We have a big task ahead of us.” Advertisement Spain is bidding to become the first European team to win the World Cup on South American soil. The Dutch were eliminated in the quarterfinals in 2010, and have won only one of nine previous World Cup finals. The game against the Netherlands is scheduled for 18:
